In developing this policy the University had regard to the provisions of section 40B(1)(b) of the Human Rights Act 2004 (ACT).

1. PURPOSE:

Emergency contacts and support services

- 1.1. Emergency contact and support service information is provided in Schedule 1 of the Sexual Misconduct Procedures.

Policy and Procedures

- 1.2. This Policy should be read in conjunction with the University of Canberra Sexual Misconduct Procedures (Procedures).

2. SCOPE:

- 2.1. This Policy and the Procedures apply to any Complaints of Sexual Misconduct and Procedures which:

- a. occurred on University Premises or within a University Digital Environment;
- b. occurred at any University program, activity, or event, whether in Canberra, interstate or abroad;
or
- c. involved parties who were acting in their capacity as a representative of the University at the time of the incident.

- 2.2. This Policy and the Procedures apply to Complaints of historical Sexual Misconduct within the scope of paragraph 3.1 and the University will manage such Complaints in accordance with the principles of this Policy. The University's ability to investigate or act in relation to historical events may be limited.

- 2.3. Without limiting the application of this Policy, Sexual Misconduct impacting anyone under the age of 18 will be dealt with through the University's Child Safety and Wellbeing Policy and the Crimes Act 1900 (ACT).

Outside of Scope

- 2.4. The University cannot investigate Complaints of Sexual Misconduct:
- a. made against persons who are not part of the University Community; or
 - b. where the alleged Sexual Misconduct occurred outside of the scope of this Policy and the Procedures, as defined in 3.1 of this Policy
- 2.5. Nothing in paragraph 4.1 prevents the University from taking action under any applicable Legal Instrument, if the University decides that such action is appropriate.

3. PRINCIPLE:

- 3.1. The University is committed to:
- a. engendering a safe, respectful and inclusive community, free from all forms of Sexual Assault, Sexual Harassment and other forms of Sexual Misconduct;
 - b. providing appropriate mechanisms for making Complaints of all forms of Sexual Misconduct;
 - c. responding to all Complaints of Sexual Misconduct in a fair, timely and reasonable manner in accordance with this Policy and the Procedures;
 - d. providing support to any member of the University Community (including Complainants and Respondents) impacted by incidents of Sexual Misconduct that have been Reported or Disclosed to the University;
 - e. creating an environment where all members of the University Community feel able to speak up and Report or Disclose instances of unacceptable behaviour within that community;
 - f. educating and empowering Staff and Students to stand up for the University's values and standards of behaviour, and to challenge harmful and unacceptable behaviours;
 - g. continuous improvement of the University's prevention and response measures to Sexual Misconduct;
 - h. supporting and promoting a culture of respectful relationships for the prevention of Sexual Misconduct;
 - i. promoting information about Sexual Misconduct to Staff and Students in an accessible manner; and
 - j. regularly undertaking risk assessments of University operations as they relate to Sexual Misconduct to identify and implement appropriate measures to continue to mitigate identified risks.
- 3.2. All forms of Sexual Misconduct, including Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment (as defined in this Policy and the Procedures), are unacceptable and will not be tolerated by the University under any circumstances.
- 3.3. The health, safety, and wellbeing of all members of the University Community is of the utmost importance and remains a paramount concern throughout any Sexual Misconduct investigation.
- 3.4. The University supports the rights of members of the University Community to report instances of Sexual Misconduct to police.
- 3.5. All members of the University Community are expected to take responsibility for their actions and behaviour and contribute to a safe, inclusive and respectful environment.
- 3.6. Any member of the University Community who becomes aware of conduct which may constitute Sexual Misconduct within the scope of this Policy, or the Procedures is strongly encouraged to promptly notify the conduct to the University. Please note that any adult in the Australian Capital Territory who reasonable believes that a child has been sexually abused must report it to police.

3.7. As a public authority, under the Human Rights Act 2004 (ACT), the University is committed to upholding the human rights of all persons.

6. Prohibited Conduct

3.8. Members of the University Community must not engage in:

- a. any form of Sexual Misconduct;
- b. Victimising Conduct;
- c. conduct which supports, promotes or encourages Sexual Misconduct; or
- d. Vexatious Complaints

7. Sexual Misconduct

3.9. Sexual Misconduct means a range of unacceptable behaviours including:

- a. Sexual Assault;
- b. Sexual Harassment;
- c. Indecent Assault;
- d. Acts of Indecency;
- e. Voyeurism;
- f. Grooming;
- g. Coercive Control;
- h. Sexual Exploitation
- i. Transactional Sex;
- j. Fraternisation;
- k. Recording or distributing intimate images;
- l. Technology Facilitated Sexual Violence;
- m. any other Sexual Offences; and
- n. any other conduct which could reasonably be considered to be inappropriate, sexualised behaviour which may cause another person to feel humiliated, fearful, abused, distressed or uncomfortable. However, it is not necessary to show that the conduct caused fear, humiliation, abuse, distress, or discomfort to amount to Sexual Misconduct.

3.10. A person will be deemed to have contravened this Policy where the University has formed a reasonable belief that Sexual Misconduct was perpetrated by the Respondent and:

- a. the other party did not Consent; or
- b. the Respondent:
 - c. knew that the other party did not Consent or withdrew their Consent;
 - d. was reckless as to whether the other person provided Consent or withdrew their Consent;
 - e. should have reasonably known that the other party was not Consenting or withdrew their Consent;
 - f. should have reasonably known that the other person could not Consent or could not have withdrawn their Consent, having regard to the particular circumstances at the time.

3.11. Sexual Misconduct may also occur where:

- a. a Respondent attempts to engage in Sexual Misconduct towards another person;
- b. a Respondent threatens to engage in Sexual Misconduct towards another person;
- c. a Respondent abuses a power imbalance over another person to engage in Sexual Misconduct;
- d. a person engages in conduct which supports, promotes or encourages Sexual Misconduct; or
- e. the Respondent, or another person, engages in conduct which is prohibited by a provision of this Policy or the Procedures.

8. Contraventions of this Policy

3.12. The University may take any disciplinary action available to it against any member of the University Community who contravenes any provision of this Policy or the Procedures.

3.13. If a Complaint is made against a Student, appropriate disciplinary action may be taken, including a referral for a decision to be made under the University of Canberra (Student Conduct) Rules 2018.

3.14. If a Complaint is made against a Staff member, appropriate disciplinary action may be taken, including under the employment contract, the Enterprise Agreement, relevant Policy or another Legal Instrument.

3.15. If a Complaint is made against a member of the University Community who is not a student or a staff member, disciplinary action may be taken under the appropriate Legal Instrument for that person, if appropriate.

3.16. The University may deny access to any and all services to a person it reasonably believes has engaged in Sexual Misconduct, including suspending or terminating their right to come onto University Premises, or attend any event or activity hosted by or on behalf of the University.

9. Interim Measures

3.17. If appropriate, the University may take interim action against a person accused of Sexual Misconduct, including:

- a. a temporary denial of any or all services; and
- b. a temporary suspension from coming onto University Premises.

3.18. Interim measures may be determined summarily by the Vice-Chancellor, a Deputy Vice-Chancellor or Vice-President taking into account any recommendation of the Chief People Officer if the complainant or respondent is a staff member.

3.19. Interim measures must:

- a. be fair and reasonable given the nature of the complaint;
- b. consider health, safety and wellbeing of the parties involved and the University Community as a paramount concern;
- c. be made on a case by case basis, taking into account the circumstances, risks, potential for harm and any other consideration reasonably deemed relevant by the decision maker; and
- d. consider the interests of all parties who may be impacted:
 - i. by the imposition of an interim measure; and
 - ii. if an interim measure is not implemented.

3.20. Interim measures are to remain in effect only until the matter has been fully investigated and finally resolved.

3.21. Interim measures are not to be taken into consideration by a decision maker as a relevant factor in the final determination of any investigation.

10. Procedural Fairness

3.22. The University undertakes to:

- a. resolve Complaints of Sexual Misconduct fairly, discreetly and in a timely manner;
- b. ensure the principles of procedural fairness are followed throughout all stages of responding to a Complaint of Sexual Misconduct; and
- c. provide an opportunity for all parties to be heard and provide relevant evidence.

3.23. At no stage will the University require the Complainant and Respondent to meet, unless both parties provide prior and express consent to do so.

3.24. Complainants and Respondents may be accompanied by a support person to any meeting or inquiry.

11. Confidentiality

3.25. The University respects the confidentiality of a Complainant and will maintain discretion following receipt of a Complaint of Sexual Misconduct.

3.26. The University will not refer a Complaint of Sexual Misconduct to police, or disclose information about a Complaint of Sexual Misconduct to a third party unless:

- a. consent to that report is provided by the Complainant;
- b. the Complainant is under 18 years of age;
- c. the University is compelled to report under any legal requirement or Legal Instrument; or
- d. the risk from not reporting the Sexual Misconduct presents:
 - i. a serious risk to any person's life; or
 - ii. a serious risk to the health and safety of any member of the University Community.

3.27. A decision to report under paragraph 11.3.26(d) can only be made by the Vice-Chancellor, a Deputy Vice-Chancellor or a Vice-President, taking into account any recommendation of the Chief People Officer if the complainant or respondent is a staff member, where in the view of the decision maker:

- a. there are compelling circumstances that such action is required; and
- b. the risk of harm cannot be adequately mitigated by another action of the University.

3.28. Where a decision to report is made under paragraphs 11.2(d) and 11.3, the Complainant will be informed of this decision.

12. Education and Training

3.29. The University commits to providing:

- a. appropriate Sexual Misconduct education and training opportunities to Staff and Students; and
- b. specialised Sexual Misconduct training to Staff and Students who require a high level of expertise and knowledge resultant from their role.

3.30. The University may require members of the University Community to undertake training modules as part of their ongoing relationship with the University.
