University of Canberra
Centre for Applied Psychology
Research Colloquia Semester 1, 2012

You are cordially invited to attend the Centre for Applied Psychology Research Colloquia. These will be held on the following Thursdays from 3:30 to 4:30 in Room 2A13.

Thursday 5 April   Dr. Vikki Knott
                  Centre for Applied Psychology, University of Canberra
                  “Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Cancer Control:
                  Improving survival via effective communication.”

Thursday 19 April  Associate Professor Bruce Stevens
                  Centre for Applied Psychology, University of Canberra
                  “41 Dreams: A comparison of five approaches to self analysis.”

Thursday 10 May   Professor Anita Mak,
                  Centre for Applied Psychology, University of Canberra
                  “Developing intercultural capability in university teachers and their students.”

If you have any enquiries regarding the program, please contact Diana.Grace@canberra.edu.au.