UC Bequest Program

Making a provision in your will in support of the University of Canberra is a very special gift which in time will help us to achieve our academic, research and teaching goals, and will benefit many generations of students and staff. A bequest to the University of Canberra is an opportunity to provide an enduring investment that will last beyond a lifetime. If you are interested in learning more about remembering UC in your will, please contact the UC Foundation team on (02) 6201 2291.
