

Staff and student contributions to 2011 APS conference

Staff member	Presentation / contribution	Date/time
Anita Mak	Member of the conference Scientific Committee
	Anita Mak will chair a session on Research on Psychology Curriculum. She will also present a paper on “Embedding the development of intercultural competence in the psychology curriculum”.	Thursday, October 6, 2 – 4 pm
Debra Rickwood (Chair)	Symposium - Facilitating young people’s access to psychological therapies and mental health care	Wednesday 2-3.30
Kelly Mazzer – UC Clinical PhD student	Helping young people to access mental health care: The role of gatekeepers in early intervention
Mitch Dowling– UC Clinical PhD student	How young people seek help for bullying and what they learn for future help-seeking
Clare Watsford– UC Clinical PhD student	Young people’s expectations of therapy
Lisa Kelly – UC Honours student	No shows: Factors that affect young people’s appointment attendance at a mental health service
Deb Rickwood	Mentoring breakfast for students	Thursday 7.30-8.30
Helen Lindner (C) Debra Rickwood Gery Karantzas	How to session – How to survive your PhD	Thursday 8.30-10
Kerry Thomas – UC PhD student	Individual Research Papers: Depression and mental health The role of sleep deprivation in the development of postpartum depression
Heather Gridley (C) Debra Rickwood	Symposium - What’s so depressing? Diversity, marginalisation and youth mental health ‘Just make it ok to go there’: Engaging young people in mental health care	Friday 10.30-12
Vivienne Lewis	Body image concern among preadolescent children: Gender differences and sociocultural influences: symposium Middle School Children’s Appearance Concerns Concurrent Session 7 - Bradman Room	05/10/2011 1600 - 1730
Bruce Stevens, Kaye Francom	4-hour professional workshop on Sexual Boundaries	(Thursday morning 6

		October
Stephen Moston	The forensic anti-doping interview: from theory, through evidence, to practice MOSTON, S. (University of Canberra), STIPIS, C. (James Cook University), ENGELBERG, T. (Griffith University) & SKINNER, J. (Griffith University)	Nicholls Theatrette 8.00-10.00am
Stephen Moston (co-author)	Moral judgement, moral intention, and attitudes towards performance enhancing drugs in sport ENGELBERG, T. (Griffith University), MOSTON, S. (University of Canberra) & SKINNER, J. (Griffith University)	Derwent/Fitzroy Room 8.00am to 10.00am
Stuart Cathcart	Paper presentation: Mindfulness and Flow in elite athletes	10am Friday 7 th Oct
Ange Curcio (student)	Poster presentation: The Relationship of Selected Impulsivity Facets with Alcohol and Substance use.	Thursday the 8th of October
Tami Shaw (student)	Psychosocial predictors of life satisfaction in Asian-born international students	Wednesday, October 5, 8.30 – 10 am
Additional Students	15 postgraduate clinical and hons students are student volunteers.
Richard Ziolkowski (student)	Presentation. Prototypes as a screening tool for mental illness.	4-5.30pm on Tuesday 4 October.
Neil Wilson (student)	Poster. The aetiology of depression: How thinking about the future can exacerbate mood.	Thursday 6th from 9-6pm
Vikki Knott (C)	Symposium : Psychosocial interventions in oncology	Tuesday 2- 3.30pm
Vikki Knott (C)	Symposium: Student research in psycho-oncology	Tuesday 4 – 5.30
Helen Wilson UC Hons student	Symposium: Student research in psycho-oncology Exploring the psychosocial impact of cancer and Adolescents and Young Adults with cancer
Gwenda Gilligan UC Masters student	Symposium: Student research in psycho-oncology Attitudes towards death and dying among CALD communities in receipt of palliative care
Laura McLaughlan UC Hons student	Symposium: Student research in psycho-oncology Non-disclosure of complementary therapy use in oncology: Development of a model for effective communication between doctor and patient	