

Argentine Month

in Canberra
October 2008

October 2008 is now declared to be Argentine Month

Opening night

With the support of the Embassy of Argentina, University of Canberra, and local communities, Canberra will see a great range of Argentine cultural activities.

Argentine Month kicks off on Friday 3 October at the University of Canberra. The night starts at 6pm with an opening address by the Argentine Ambassador, and a great tango documentary film "Si Sos Brujo: Una Historia de Tango" will be screened (Building 2 Lecture Theatre 2B11).

Then you are invited to experience an evening of beautiful tango music at the one-night-only Tango Café, which will be set up at the Green Room, University of Canberra. Enjoy beautiful Golden Age (1930s-1950s) tango music carefully selected by one of the best tango DJs in Australia, while enjoying Argentine wine and snacks sponsored by the Embassy. Coffee and other drinks will also be available for purchase from the café.

The Tango Café will be open from 8pm till late.

More events

Weekly Argentine Film Night - Tuesdays, 6.30pm, Building 2 Lecture Theatre (2B7)

- 7 October El Día Que Me Amen (2003)
- 14 October Un Oso Rojo (2004)
- 21 October ¿Quién dice que es fácil? (2007)
- 28 October Cautiva (2006)

Hosted by the University of Canberra and the Embassy of Argentina

Saturday 4 October 12pm -2pm
Asado – an authentic Argentine BBQ

Enjoy empanada, chorizo, morcilla, costillas, chicken kebabs, costillitas de cerdo, salad and bread, dessert, tea and coffee. Price: $35 per person.

All profit from this event will go to support schools in rural Argentina. Booking is essential. Please contact Puente Austral at punteaustral@dodo.com.au by 19 September. You can pay directly into the Puente Austral account: ComBank BSB 062-903 Account No. 1032 8720

Sunday 5 October 2pm -2.30pm
Lecture – Dr Daniel Martín, "Tango and Demography", King's Hall, Old Parliament House.

Dr Daniel Martín is a Senior Lecturer in Spanish and the convener of the Spanish program at The Australian National University. This will be followed at 2.30pm - 4pm by a small afternoon dance "milonga" – a social dance for tango dancers.

28 October, 6.30pm, Final Night

The Embassy of Argentina and University of Canberra invites you for closing drinks and nibbles to celebrate the wonderful month of Argentine culture in Canberra.

Argentine Month proudly supported by:
The Embassy of Argentina and The University of Canberra

