

40
YEARS
1968 - 2008

UNIVERSITY OF
CANBERRA
AUSTRALIA'S CAPITAL UNIVERSITY

ISN'T OUR KNOWLEDGE, OUR CULTURES, OUR WORLD VIEWS ENOUGH?

Presented by
STEPHEN HAGAN

Internationally renowned author, academic and commentator on race relations.

Stephen Hagan is a descendant of the Kullilli peoples of south west Queensland. He completed a Bachelor of Arts Degree at the Canberra College of Advanced Education in 1986, a Master of Business Administration from the University of Southern Queensland in 2002 and is currently enrolled in a PhD at Monash University. An academic at the University of Southern Queensland, Stephen is an award winning author, publisher, multi-award winning film maker, 2006 NAIDOC Person of the Year and national columnist for the Koori Mail, OnlineOpinion and ABC Online.

Where: University of Canberra
Boiler House, Building 14
Kirinari Street, Bruce

When: 12.15 – 1.15, October 2, 2008.
Light refreshments will be provided.

RSVP: To Kaye Price for catering purposes
Phone: 02 62015894 or
Email: kaye.price@canberra.edu.au

2008 NGUNAWAL
LECTURE