

The Inaugural
Boiler House Lay
Seminars
"Research for You"

Wednesday 24th September

- 10 Research students
- 10 Minute presentations
- 10 Interesting topics

The Boiler House Lay Seminar series is an event where UC research students will present an interesting element of their research - in language the rest of us can understand! A judging panel will select the presentation which best conveys research to the non-research community.

Topics include:

- Fingerprint detection
- Business and government
- River ecology
- Artificial intelligence
- Workforce of the future
- Corporate law
- Communications
- What's in a suburb?
- Elite athletics
- Museum culture

When: Wednesday 24 September, 12pm – 2:30pm
Where: Boiler House, Building 14, University of Canberra

Free lunch and bus pick-up/drop-off will be provided for school students years 10-12 (minimum class size of 20)

RSVP by Friday 19 September

Inga Davis 6201 2065 or inga.davis@canberra.edu.au

