NATSEM Undergraduate Scholarship in Economics

Closing Date: Census Date Semester One

NATSEM will provide two Scholarships at a value of $3,000 for each year of full-time study, or part-time equivalent for the duration of the degree. This scholarship is funded by NATSEM and an internship with NATSEM may also be available over the course of the scholarship if the awardee is interested in pursuing this, and there is capacity within NATSEM at the time. Selection of the successful applicants will be determined through evidence of disadvantages

To be eligible an applicant must:
- Be enrolled in first year studies or have accepted their offer of place in an Undergraduate Economics degree at the University of Canberra, studying full-time, or provide details of circumstances underpinning part-time study decision;
- Be able to demonstrate financial disadvantage and/or other difficulty (e.g. carer/illness/disability).
- Attach a 300 word statement outlining their interest in the scholarship.
