University of Canberra Scholarship for International, Migrant and Refugee Students

Closing Date: Census Date Semester One

This scholarship is valued at $2,000 and is available for one year. This scholarship is funded by the University’s Access Scholarship Scheme. Students enrolled in an undergraduate degree are encouraged to apply. Applicants should attach a 500-word statement outlining financial hardship and their interest in the award and how the financial assistance will help with study. Please note that successful applicants will be determined through demonstrated high level financial hardship and demonstrated disadvantage as outlined in the application form.

To be eligible you must:
- Be an international, migrant or refugee student and be able to provide evidence of financial hardship;
- Be approved for an offer of place or be enrolled on a full-time or part-time basis in an undergraduate degree
- Be able to demonstrate high level financial hardship and disadvantage as per the application form
