University of Canberra Arscott House Accommodation Scholarship for Rural and Regional Students

Closing Date: Census Date Semester One

The scholarship will assist Domestic commencing students who have relocated from a rural or regional area to study at the University of Canberra. Successful applicants will receive a $4,000 fee reduction for their first year’s accommodation at Arscott House.

To be eligible for the Scholarship, an applicant must:

- Be offered a place at Arscott House accommodation;
- be offered a place in their undergraduate degree at the University of Canberra;
- be an Australian citizen or permanent resident;
- be a resident of Arscott House accommodation for the year of the scholarship award;
- and have demonstrated need for financial assistance as evidenced by documents provided to support their application as well as a 300 word statement outlining how the financial assistance will contribute to the advancement of their education.
- Preference will be given to students who have a low socioeconomic status (SES) home location postcode as classified by the Australian Bureau of Statistics.

Name_________________________________________ ID Number____________________________________

Checklist:

☐ I have answered all questions
☐ I have attached my any documentation required
☐ I have attached my written statement
☐ I have read and signed the Declaration
☐ I have followed the above instructions for completing my application

I understand that the giving of false or misleading information may lead to the refusal of my application or cancellation of enrolment. I give permission to the University to obtain official records from any educational institution attended by me. As detailed in the Privacy Statement, I authorise the University to supply any relevant official records to government bodies. I understand that my application may not be assessed if I do not provide all the requested documentation.

Accepted_________________________________________ Date________________________