University of Canberra Research Repository

The University of Canberra (UC) has created a Research Repository with the aim of preserving and disseminating scholarly material. The Repository collects all research outputs from UC affiliated authors and bodies, including journal articles, books, book chapters, conference proceedings and theses. You can find out more about the Research Repository here:
<http://www.canberra.edu.au/library/equilla/about-the-repository>

UC policy in regards to the Research Repository is set out in the Gold Book, Part 7: Examination of Higher Degree by Research Theses Policy, Schedule 2.4(c) at <http://www.canberra.edu.au/research-students/goldbook>

Your thesis will be automatically included in the Research Repository. As well as improving University research reporting, this allows greater access and use of UC higher degree theses.

By signing this document, I agree that a copy of my thesis will be stored in the university's Research Repository, that it will be available in full text online, and that I have obtained all the appropriate copyright permissions for all copyrighted materials used in my thesis.
