

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE APPLICANT

- Please complete ONE of these forms for EACH authored, co-authored or edited publication that you wish to submit in support of your scholarship application. Copy additional forms for each publication, as necessary.
- Applicants are strongly encouraged to complete this form electronically. Download the form at <http://www.canberra.edu.au/research-students/forms> under the heading 'Scholarship Applicants'.
- If the publication is in press, provide evidence of acceptance for publication, and/or date of publication

An example of how to detail your contribution to a research publication or report is given below.

- Smith, J., Jones, F. and Roberts, S (1998) "An Analysis of the University of Canberra Scholarship Applications", Journal of Higher Education Research, Vol 21, No 6, pp 34 – 64

Ms F Jones and myself (Ms S Roberts) collected data from past years' applications. Ms F Jones entered these into the computer. I undertook preliminary analysis of the data and drafted sections 2 and 3 of the article. Dr J Smith completed analysis of the data, and produced a final draft article.

- If the contribution is a creative work, provide a 250 word statement on:
Research Background: field, context and research question
Research Contribution: innovation, new knowledge
Research Significance: evidence of excellence

Where information regarding your contribution to a publication is not provided, the Scholarships committee may assume that your contribution was negligible.

To check boxed using Microsoft Word, double click the desired box and select 'Checked' under the heading 'Default Value'

You must attach:

- Photocopies of first page including abstract and all bibliographic information (ISBN, title, author(s), and publisher, all dates referring to copyright, publication, printing and distribution).
- An abstract in English if the publication is in a language other than English.
