NOTES:

1	For the purpose of charging fees, graduate certificates, graduate diplomas and masters courses are considered to be discrete courses, even where they belong to a suite of courses. Accordingly, students who upgrade from a graduate certificate to a graduate diploma to a masters course will be charged at the annual rate applicable for the year in which they commence each course (see note 3, below, for further information).
2	A 'closed' status indicates that a course is not open for new admissions in 2010.
3	The University of Canberra sets its fees according to an annual rate method. The annual rate is the fee that applies to standard full-time enrolment, which is 24 credit points. The final fee charged is based on the proportion of 24 credit points in which a student enrolls. For example, if a student only enrolls in 3 credit points then the student will be charged $3/24 = 0.125 \times$ annual rate. In 2006 the University changed its fee charging method. The annual rate that applies in the year a student commences will apply until the student completes the degree (as long as the student completes in standard part-time enrolment duration). Students who commenced in 2005 or pre-2005 will be charged the 2005 annual rate. The only exception to this rule is postgraduate research students. If a
