UC STUDENT EMAIL ACCOUNT

Your UC Email account is for life.

I understand that the University provides all students with a student email account which can be accessed through MyUC and Live MSN. Official University communications are issued to your student email account. It is an expectation that students will access their student email account on a regular basis. The University does not accept responsibility for repercussions that might be experienced by students as a result of not accessing their UC email account.

Please tick once the above is read and understood
