Printing Instructions:

Before you can get your job from the printer, you must first send it to the printer. You do this by clicking the Microsoft Office button in Word or Excel or PowerPoint or the File menu in other programs, and clicking on ‘Print’. To print in black and white, send your printing to 8-BW-KM552. To print in colour, send your printing to 8-Colour-KM552.

You can print in black and white and colour to all nine MFDs (multi-function devices) in the Library:

Level B – Four MFDs are available in this area, and one MFD is available in the short loan section.

Library Commons – Two MFDs are available.

Level C – Two MFDs are available near the student computers. Level D – One MFD is available near the student computers.

Once you have sent your print job to the MFDs, present your student ID card on the MFD card reader on the right of the printer.

- Select ‘Print Release’ on the MFD touch screen.
- Select your print job from the list on the MFD touch screen.
- Press the ‘Start’ button, marked with a blue light.
- Press the ‘Log out’ button on the printer control panel.

Credit is not deducted from your account until your job is released.

You can view and release only your own print jobs at the MFD.

Getting started

UC Students
To print and photocopy in the Library (and in other locations of the University including the Computer Centre in Building 10) you will need a current University of Canberra Student ID card with credit added.

To add credit, take your student ID card to the AutoLoader on Level B of the Library, or in Building 10, and follow the instructions. The AutoLoader accepts gold and silver coins, and notes. There is also a change machine next to the AutoLoader which exchanges silver coins and notes or gold coins.

Non-UC students
If you do not have a University of Canberra Student ID card, you can photocopy in the Library by purchasing a rechargeable photocopy card from the AutoLoader on Level B of the Library. Rechargeable photocopy cards cost $4.00 ($3.50 card and $0.50 preload). You will need to add credit to your card before photocopying. Follow the instructions at the AutoLoader.

A rechargeable photocopy card will allow you to photocopy in the Library and in some of the University's Learning Resource Centres. A photocopy card cannot be used for printing in the Library or anywhere else in the University.
