

CECG Microcredential Credit Pathways

Credit Pathway for Catalyst Microcredential:

Learning Outcomes for [Advanced Professional Learning 11717]	Learning Outcomes for Catalyst Microcredential
1 Contextualise and explore advanced education practice in a new, unique and authentic context specific to this unit of study.	→ Contextualise and explore Catalyst’s program of advanced education practice in a new, unique and authentic school-based context.
2 Integrate theory with advanced educational practice to design, adapt and manage the implementation of learning and/or workplace interventions within the context explored in this unit.	→ Integrate the Catalyst theory with advanced educational practice to design to adapt and implement the Catalyst learning and interventions, supported by coaching, in the student’s school context.
3 Critically reflect on the skills necessary to communicate and collaborate effectively within complex professional educational contexts explored in this unit.	→ Critically reflect on the Catalyst skills learnt, rehearsed and implemented to and collaborate effectively within complex professional educational contexts explored in this unit.
4 Critically assess the knowledge, skills, attitudes and abilities, and articulate personal preferences aligned to subsequent steps in career planning and self-management.	→ Critically assess the knowledge, skills, attitudes and abilities provided by Catalyst professional learning, enabling the student to articulate personal preferences aligned to subsequent steps in career planning and self-management.

Credit Pathway for PCE: Science of Learning:

Stacking multiple microcredentials towards further study:

Credit pathway for a student who successfully completes Catalyst Microcredential and Science of Learning Professional Certificate in Education.

