CONDUCT OF MEETINGS

25. Standing Orders 28 to 37 only apply if either the Chair determines, or Academic Board resolves, to enter into "formal debate". In all other circumstances the Chair will lead the meeting and ensure that it is conducted in a collegial and consultative manner, where all members' views can be expressed and considered.
26. The Chair will determine whether any items of business not on the agenda may be discussed at the meeting.
27. Papers may be tabled at a meeting only with the Chair's approval. If approval is granted, and the paper supports the deliberative process of the agenda item, members will be given adequate reading time to consider the paper. If reading time is not available, the Chair may postpone the agenda item to a future meeting.
28. No member of Academic Board shall initiate debate or move a motion in respect of a matter not included in the agenda unless the Chair otherwise determines.
29. If a member has given prior notice of a motion, but is absent from the meeting, the motion must not proceed unless the member so consents in writing.
30. Except for motions of which prior notice has been given or motions from the Chair, all motions and amendments will be moved and seconded before being accepted for debate. Motions put to the meeting cannot be withdrawn without its consent. The withdrawal must be made before the motion is put to a vote and if there is a seconder to the motion his or her consent must be obtained for the withdrawal to be allowed.
31. The original motion is superseded once an amendment has been carried. The motion must then be put again in its amended form, which then becomes the substantive motion.
32. No more than one amendment can be before the meeting at the same time.
33. Any motion or amendment not seconded shall not be discussed nor recorded in the minutes.
34. The Chair determines the order in which intending speakers may address the meeting.

35. Unless the Chair determines otherwise, each member may speak once only to a motion or amendment except the mover who has the right of reply.
36. Members must raise a point of order to draw attention to an irregularity or impropriety in the proceedings or a lack of quorum.
37. Points of order must be made to the Chair whose decision is binding.

RECISSION MOTIONS

38. A resolution of Academic Board is binding. A decision to rescind a resolution must be approved by Academic Board.
39. When a resolution has been adopted, no motion to rescind that resolution may be made at the same meeting.
40. Notice of motion to rescind a resolution should be given in writing to the Secretary no less than seven days before the meeting at which it will be considered, signed by at least three members of Academic Board.
41. A rescission motion may not be accepted by the Chair if the relevant resolution has been materially put into effect.

DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS

42. A member of Academic Board who has an interest, personal, business or otherwise, in a matter being considered or about to be considered by the Academic Board must, as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to the member's knowledge, disclose the nature and extent of the interest at a meeting of the Academic Board.

A disclosure must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting and the member must not, unless the Academic Board otherwise decides, be present during any deliberation of the Academic Board in relation to the matter or take part in any decision of the Academic Board in relation to that matter.

43. Despite Standing Order 11, if a member is not present for consideration of an item under Standing Order 43 in relation to a matter, a quorum is present during the consideration of the matter if a majority less one of the people for the time being holding office as members of the Academic Board is present.

DECISION MAKING

44. Decisions will be determined by vote, unless the Chair determines that the matter should be determined by majority consensus.
45. In the event of a vote:
 - a) voting will be by show of hands or voice as determined by the Chair and may vary by member subject to their mode of attendance;
 - b) each member, including the Chair, shall have a deliberative vote;
 - c) a motion will be carried if the majority of votes are cast in favour of the motion; and
 - d) a motion will not be carried in the event of a tied vote.
46. The Chair may determine that urgent matters requiring Academic Board's approval between meetings may be conducted by circulating resolution.
47. Circulating resolutions require support from 2/3 of the Academic Board membership, evidenced by the members' signatures, which may include electronic signatures, or email confirmation sent from an authorised email account.

Observers attending by videoconference must ensure that they remain muted at all times during the meeting.
52. While observers will be free to arrive and depart at any time, this should be done as unobtrusively as possible so as not to disrupt the meeting. Observers should not act in a way that distracts members or interferes with the conduct of Academic Board business.
53. Observers must not take photographs or electronically record proceedings except with the prior approval of the Chair.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF PROCEEDINGS

54. Each member shall treat as confidential all matters discussed in closed sessions of Academic Board including, but not limited to, details and content of discussions, details of voting and the points of view, opinions and positions of individual members, including himself or herself.
55. No person other than a member of Academic Board authorised by Academic Board, may issue on behalf of Academic Board any statement concerning the confidential business of the Academic Board or matters discussed in the closed session of Academic Board.

59. At the next Academic Board meeting, the unconfirmed minutes will be taken as read and will either be confirmed or confirmed as amended.

61. Where a Committee of Academic Board is to provide minutes or reports to Academic Board, they must first be circulated to the Chair of the Committee for comment.

CONDUCT IN MEETINGS

62. The Chair may call to order any member whose behaviour is offensive, disorderly or discourteous. The member called to order must remain silent unless permitted by the Chair to explain his or her conduct.
63. Any member or other person attending a meeting of Academic Board who behaves in an offensive, disorderly or discourteous manner may be requested by the Chair to leave the meeting for a period to be determined by the Chair.
64. In the event of a breach of these Standing Orders, Academic Board may censure or suspend from attendance for a fixed period, any member of the Academic Board responsible for such a breach.

REMOVAL OF MEMBERS

65. The Rules provide Academic Board with the power to remove an elected member, by resolution passed by 2/3 of the members of the Academic Board if the member fails to comply with a duty identified in Rule 6 of the Rules or fails to attend more than three meetings of Academic Board without an approved leave of absence.

66. A notice of motion to remove a member from office must be submitted in writing and is to be distributed by the Secretary to members of Academic Board only.
67. A Special Meeting may be called to consider a notice of motion to remove a member from office.
68. Written notice to a member of Academic Board must be given not later than 14 days prior to the meeting at which the motion for removal of that member will be considered.
69. Motions for removal will be considered in closed session, with only members of Academic Board and the Secretary present. The Chairperson may require the attendance of specified University officers to assist Academic Board in dealing with the matter.

SUSPENSION OF STANDING ORDERS

70. Any Academic Board member may move the suspension of standing orders. The suspension of standing orders shall require a resolution passed by 2/3 of the members of the Academic Board present.
