THE UNIVERSITY OF CANBERRA

The University of Canberra is a young University anchored in the national capital and works with government, business, and industry to serve our communities and nation. The University of Canberra challenges the status quo; always pursuing better ways to teach, learn, research, and add value – locally and internationally.

Our purpose is to provide education which offers high quality transformative experiences; to engage in research which makes a difference to the world around us; and to contribute to the building of just, prosperous, healthy, and sustainable communities.

The University of Canberra has recently established its long-term ambitions through its new decadal strategy: Connected. Through its three objectives (Connected to Canberra, Connected for life and Connected UC), the University of Canberra aims to build sustainable communities through deep collaborations that are locally focused and globally relevant, partner for life with our students to shape our economic, social and cultural futures and deliver an outstanding, digitally connected experience that removes barriers to accessing higher education.

OUR PURPOSE AND VALUES

Our purpose and values are the heart of this university. They describe our core identity: who we are and how we behave at the University of Canberra. They were developed by our people for our people.

Galambany

Together we work to empower, connect and share knowledge with our people, cultures and places.

FACULTY OF EDUCATION OVERVIEW

Education was a foundation discipline of the University. The Faculty's major areas of strength are its innovative Initial Teacher Education (ITE) programs, its diverse Post Graduate offerings including domestic and transnational programs and its very strong research performance sustained over many years. The Faculty has strong relationships with its key stakeholders which has led to the development of impactful partnerships, most significantly the Affiliated Schools partnership with the ACT Education Directorate. The Faculty is home to two University Research Centres, the STEM Education Research Centre (SERC) and the Centre for Sustainable Communities (CSC) as well as the Wiradjuri Pre-School and Early Learning Centre.

The Faculty offers: undergraduate and graduate entry courses in early childhood, primary and secondary teacher education; postgraduate education and educational leadership; and postgraduate Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) courses. It also offers Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) and Doctor of Education (EdD) programs. All of the Faculty's Initial Teacher Education courses have a significant, school-based, clinical component. The Faculty also has a strong commitment to the integration of indigenous ways of knowing, being and doing into our programs. The Faculty has approximately 2200 students (approximately 1300 full-time equivalent). Of these, 1400 are enrolled in undergraduate courses, 750 in postgraduate courses and 50 in doctoral programs. Approximately 60 students are enrolled in postgraduate courses in Hangzhou (China) and in Hanoi (Vietnam).

Faculty research involves the study of learning and the practices and technologies that support and enhance learning in communities, organizations, museums, galleries, families, on playing fields and in schools. During 2020 and 2021, researchers in the Faculty were awarded more than $7.6m in research grants.
