DESIGNING BETTER HEALTH OUTCOMES FOR ALL: A MULTI-DISCIPLINARY STUDY TOUR IN SINGAPORE AND MALAYSIA

6 June - 22 June 2024

Explore the chance to participate in an interdisciplinary collaboration alongside colleagues from both local and international contexts in Malaysia and Singapore!

Design, Health and IT students from 3 Australian universities are embarking on an adventure to Singapore and Malaysia to team up with local students. Their mission? To create new and innovative sustainable design solutions in Health. The results of this workshop will be displayed in a special exhibition at a globally significant exhibition space in Singapore. Singapore, the futuristic wonderland, has been hailed as an 'economic miracle' in Southeast Asia, and in just 56 years, it has skyrocketed living standards. Design in Singapore is seen as a significant economic and social driver and it is described by the Design Singapore Council as an industry that 'changes and improves lives, inspires creativity and new forms of expression.'
