MASTER OF INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT IN GENEVA STUDY TOUR

20 - 28 May 2024

Calling all Master of International Development students! Pack your bags for a rare opportunity in Geneva, Switzerland, visiting some of the world's leading organisations.

Get ready for the adventure of a lifetime with the Faculty of Arts and Design, as we explore the fascinating history of capitalism, colonialism, conquest, and neoliberalism. Buckle up as we head to Geneva, where we'll visit the UN Palais de Nations, the World Trade Organisation, the International Committee of the Red Cross, the UN High Commissioner for Refugees, and the World Meteorological Organisation. With exclusive visits to international agencies, museums, and once-in-a-lifetime masterclasses by staff from these agencies and academics at the Graduate Institute of International and Development Studies (IHEID), this trip is not one to miss. This is an extraordinary opportunity to learn from the best.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Join us on a thrilling journey to visit fascinating organisations, such as the UN Palais de Nations, International Committee of the Red Cross, World Trade Organisation, the World Meteorological Organisation and the UN High Commissioner for Refugees. Interact with representatives and attend masterclasses hosted by academics and agency staff. Take a trip to museums and collections that showcase the history of colonialism and development. And, of course, you'll have ample time to explore the charming city of Geneva. This is an exceptional opportunity that only a handful of International Development courses around the world provide, so don't let it slip away!

ELIGIBILITY

This opportunity is available to students pursuing a Master of International Development (193JA) as well as those enrolled in other Masters Degrees. To participate, students will need to enroll in the unit "Capital, Conquest, Colonialism, and Cold War: A history of International Development PG (12073.1)", a 6 credit point unit that will be conducted in intensive mode.

APPLY BY FEBRUARY 28 2024
