CREATIVE LEARNING IN MUSEUM SPACES FINLAND AND ESTONIA

24 May 2026 - 8 June 2026

Unleash your Design Potential in Finland!

Join students from the Faculties of Education and Arts and Design on an inspiring international study tour to Finland and Estonia exploring Creative Learning in Museum Spaces. This unique opportunity invites participants into interdisciplinary collaborations with peers, weaving together art, design, and education in vibrant museum contexts. Open to students across disciplines, the tour fosters professional growth, creative inquiry, and a deeper understanding of how cultural spaces shape learning and identity.

Immerse yourself in Finnish culture, enhance your cross-cultural communication and explore diverse design perspectives. Visit local attractions, interact with communities, and attend workshops and lectures, broadening your global perspective and creating lasting connections for your future!
