

Aged Care Nursing Career Pathways

Strengthening the aged care community with...

Gerontological Alliance of Nurses Australia

What is GANA?

GANA is raising the profile of gerontological nursing and offers a forum that supports the professional development of gerontological nurses and assistants.

Established in 2022, GANA enables access to gerontological nursing knowledge and a community of specialist nurses to support the delivery of high quality, evidence based and holistic care in Australia to older people and their families.

Why join GANA?

In collaboration with it's partners and members, GANA hosts webinars, podcasts and networking opportunities. These events facilitate insightful discussions, networking with like-minded individuals and provide a platform for growth and collaboration.

Gerontological nursing is such a specialised field and GANA has such a great role in focusing on this vital nursing role that we need to recognise... GANA has taken this great initiative and I'm proud to be a member of GANA

What sets GANA apart?

GANA promotes gerontology as a unique nursing specialty that makes a crucial contribution to the health and well-being of older people in Australia. With an accessible membership structure and a commitment to improving aged care through research, policy and advocacy, GANA empowers nurses to make a real difference in the lives of older Australians.

Who is GANA for?

- Registered Nurses, Enrolled Nurses and Assistants in Nursing.
- Nursing students seeking support in their gerontological nursing journey.
- Retired gerontological nurses.

The Australian Association of Gerontology (AAG) are partnered with GANA to support membership administration processes and organise events.
