

SOLDIER ON SCHOLARSHIP

Conditions of Award

Purpose of the Scholarship

This Scholarship aims to assist domestic students who are also former defence persons and have been affected by their service or by the service of an immediate family member.

Scholarship Details

The Scholarship shall be known as the Soldier On Scholarship.

The Scholarship is funded by Soldier On.

Eligibility

The Scholarship is open for consideration for Australian citizens who are also former defence persons or an immediate family member of such a person. The student must also be currently enrolled in the first year or final year of undergraduate or postgraduate degree.

Application

Details on how to apply for the Soldier On Scholarship, including opening and closing dates, will be advertised on the Scholarship webpage (<https://www.canberra.edu.au/scholarships>). Payments will be made as soon as possible after census date.

Students are expected to apply only once through the Application portal available through the Scholarships website. Applicants must answer each question in the application form truly and to the best of their knowledge at the time of applying. Any major change in the application must be conveyed to the Scholarships Office at Scholarships@canberra.edu.au before the closing date. After this date, applications will be considered based on the original application. In case of multiple applications, the latest application will be considered.

Selection

The committee will consider the following parameters in the application form:

- 50% Written statement outlining the extent to which the recipient's study program will help them overcome challenges and create new opportunities for their future.
- 50% Written statement outlining the extent to which the scholarship will enable the recipient to do what might not have otherwise been possible.

The Scholarships Office will prepare a shortlist of applications who meet the criteria and provide this to the Scholarships committee. The Committee reviews applications and ranks these according to the parameters of the scholarship. The Scholarships Office will collate all the information and submit the Committee's recommendations for approval. A final check of eligibility is completed after the census date prior to awarding the Scholarships.

Number of Scholarships

One or more Scholarships may be awarded each year. The Committee reserves the right not to offer an award/to offer an award at any time to an eligible person.

Value and Tenure of the Scholarship

The value of each scholarship is determined by Soldier On and is currently valued at $3,000 paid as a one-off payment. The Scholarship money is paid after the census date via Electronic Funds transfer.

Enrolment Conditions

The recipient must be enrolled as a full-time student after the census date for the Scholarship to be awarded.

Recipient Conditions

The recipients are advised that information relevant to the scholarship will be shared between the University of Canberra and the Donor in order to administer the scholarship. Recipients must adhere to the University of Canberra's policies and procedures. Recipients must agree to their academic progress being made known to the scholarship donor.

The recipients are encouraged to liaise and meet with the donor of their Scholarship and provide a brief summary of how the Scholarship assisted them with their studies as directed by the Scholarships Office when required. The Scholarship recipient is also encouraged to participate in publicity for the scholarships from time to time. Recipients may be contacted for an interview and photograph. The University may also publicise the Scholarships by publishing the names of the scholars. Arrangements for such publicity will be made through the either the Scholarships Office, Advancement Office or Marketing Office.

Providing False or Misleading Information

The awarding of a scholarship/grant is based on the information provided to the University. An award may be withdrawn at any stage if incorrect, false or misleading information is provided or relevant information is withheld. This includes circumstances where the false information is unrelated to the assessment in awarding the scholarship/grant.

Deferment

The Scholarship cannot be deferred.

Taxation and Centrelink

Recipients are responsible for seeking taxation and Centrelink advice regarding their own individual circumstances. Scholarships/grants may be regarded as taxable income if a recipient is enrolled on a part-time basis.
