About this course

Unleash your creativity with an Honours degree

Unleash your creativity with an Honours degree. If you have a keen eye for art and design, this flexible course will enable you to progress your studies (full-time or part-time) by undertaking an academic thesis or substantial creative, design or industry-relevant piece of work related to your specialised area. Working closely with expert supervisors, you will develop the high-level skills required for research or project-based employment, and your qualification will significantly broaden your future career prospects.

Study a Bachelor of Arts and Design (Honours) at UC and you will:

- Enhance your academic and research skills
- Develop your portfolio and pursue industry-based experiences in your chosen profession
- Be part of an exciting research community of students and academics with access to the Faculty's research expertise, support and networking opportunities
- Have the opportunity to be fast-tracked into PhD study

Work integrated learning

As part of UC's commitment to enhancing your employability, you will have the option to undertake a Work Integrated Learning project which will ensure you are armed with the right mix of skills and knowledge to develop an impressive portfolio to present to future employers. In the past, UC Arts and Design students have connected with industry via organisations including Calvary Hospital, Guide Dogs Australia, the AIS and the National Museum of Australia.

Career opportunities

- Filmmaker
- Media advisor
- Writer
- Graphic designer
- Multimedia artist
- Product designer
