About this course

Need a flexible leadership qualification with a range of electives?

Channel your creative energy and professional skills into helping solve real-world social issues, with a Double Degree that will hone your qualifications in subjects like accounting, economics, business law, information systems and marketing.

You'll gain a broad understanding of management theory, be able to apply a range of business-centric problem solving techniques, and demonstrate first-rate communication skills in a smorgasbord of multi-disciplinary and cultural contexts. Cap that off with a choice of (over 50) electives and an internship stint working in your choice of specialisation, and you'll be managing your way into career superstardom in a flash.

Combine a Bachelor of Arts / Bachelor of Management at UC and you will:

- acquire a broad understanding of theory and practice in management
- recognise specific problem solving contexts and be able to apply analytical and creative skills

- demonstrate communications skills for sharing ideas and working in teams with different mixes of disciplinary and cultural backgrounds
- study the practical aspects of the law such as in government-business relations
- channel your creative energy and professional skills into helping solve real-world social issues.

Work-integrated learning

In this course, you can undertake a workplace internship as part of the Faculty of Arts and Design's commitment to supporting work integrated learning, which will enhance your employability and ensure you're armed with the right mix of skills and knowledge to take a super-confident leap into your future career.

Career opportunities

Opportunities exist for Bachelor of Arts / Bachelor of Management graduates in a range of sectors, including:

- Commerce
- Finance
- IT
- Governance
- Leadership
- HR
- Communications

Learning outcomes

Learning outcomes	Related graduate attributes
To provide students with a flexible preparation for many areas of vocational and professional employment, as well as the broad perspective required for informed citizenship through an in-depth understanding of three discipline areas.	1. Communication

The course aims to equip students with a range of skills necessary for being an independent thinker, and to improve your ability to deal confidently and effectively with complex reasoning, argumentation and divergent thinking. Further, the course aims to develop students' capacities to analyse and evaluate complex arguments, to construct strong and convincing arguments and to communicate those arguments effectively. It also aims to develop skills needed for idea generation and creative problem solving. The course provides foundation units in the first year to develop all the essential generic skills as listed in the UC Generic Skills Policy. The UC Generic Skills are also developed across the three Majors. While some units in some Majors focus on a few of the Generic Skills, by the completion of a Major, all the skills have been developed. These skills are developed in a general (Foundation units) and discipline specific way (Majors and Open Electives). The course also provides open electives from any discipline within the University of Canberra.	The ability to present knowledge, ideas and opinions effectively and communicate within and across professional and cultural boundaries. 2. Analysis and inquiry The ability to gather information, and to analyse and evaluate information and situations in a systematic, creative and insightful way. 3. Problem solving The ability to apply problem-solving processes in novel situations; to identify and analyse problems then formulate and implement solutions. 4. Working independently and with others The ability to plan their own work, be self-directed, and use interpersonal skills and attitudes to work collaboratively. 5. Professionalism and social responsibility The capacity and intention to use professional knowledge and skills ethically and responsibly, for the benefit of others and the environment.

UC acknowledges the Ngunnawal people, traditional custodians of the lands where Bruce campus is situated. We wish to acknowledge and respect their continuing culture and the contribution they make to the life of Canberra and the region. We also acknowledge all other First Nations Peoples on whose lands we gather.
