About this course

Manage on a world stage

Would you like a career in management that could take you around the world? This combined degree will focus your career path on top level engagement.

Be prepared for a career in the business, public or non-governmental sector while investigating the interplay of cultural, political and economic forces in the regional and global arena.

Combine a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies with a Bachelor of Management at UC to:

- gain conceptual understanding and a practical orientation in management
- attain intercultural knowledge

- understand concepts of international issues
- investigate cultural, political and economic forces in the global arena.

Study opportunities

A major advantage of the Bachelor in International Studies is the opportunity to take an international exchange semester.

The experience will give you first-hand experience and cultural understanding of international business, and encourage you to network at a professional and international level.

Career opportunities

This double degree gives you top-level opportunities in the following areas:

- accounting and economics
- banking and financial services
- entrepreneurship and financial planning
- human resource management
- information systems and marketing.

Important to know

The course covers eight semesters or the part-time equivalent to a maximum of 20 semesters.

You can graduate early with a single degree upon completion of the academic requirements for that degree. Students must seek the advice of the course convener during the first year of their study for this to be possible.

Admission requirements

Attainment of the published ATAR or its equivalent of either the Bachelor of Arts in International Studies or Bachelor of Management (whichever is higher).

Additional admission requirements

Refer to individual courses.

Assumed knowledge

Refer to individual courses.

Periods course is open for new admissions
