

Master of Nutrition and Dietetics

Domestic and International Applications via the University of Canberra Online Portal

772AA – Master of Nutrition and Dietetics

1. Go to www.canberra.edu.au/future-students/apply-now and complete your application online.
2. Upload your Letter of Application with your application
 - a. Write a short letter of less than 500 words on why you believe you can contribute to the profession of dietetics. Citing references is not required. This provides the opportunity to inform the selection committee of your reasons for undertaking this course, to include any work experience and skills, and to include other relevant factors. The university reserves the right to seek further information relating to your letter of application.

Domestic Applications via Universities Admissions Centre (UAC)

880830 – Master of Nutrition and Dietetics

1. Go to www.uac.edu.au (Universities Admissions Centre) and complete your application online.
2. Upload your Letter of Application with your application
 - a. Write a short letter of less than 500 words on why you believe you can contribute to the profession of dietetics. Citing references is not required. This provides the opportunity to inform the selection committee of your reasons for undertaking this course, to include any work experience and skills, and to include other relevant factors. The university reserves the right to seek further information relating to your letter of application.

IMPORTANT

Applicants who have not provided a Letter of Application will not be considered eligible for admission into the Master of Nutrition and Dietetics.