

University of Canberra Student Information: where to go

The University of Canberra (UC) has a range of resources and support information to assist you in your studies with UC. Please see the links below for more information.

Where do I start? Student Portal (MyUC)

Information about the services available at your home institution and other support is available on the UC Current Students Website.

See: <http://www.canberra.edu.au/current-students/other-countries>

MyUC is the gateway for students to view and manage their studies at UC.

Using MyUC you can:

- access your student email
- access your results and view your current enrolment information and academic history
- access study tools
- access important university messages
- view and update your personal contact details

See: MyUC Student Portal login

<https://www.canberra.edu.au/myuc-u/>

Accessing Unit Material Online (Canvas)

You will have access to UC unit material and your assessments through the Learning Management System, UCLearn \(Canvas\). You will generally be able to view unit material from the commencement date of the unit.

Note: To access, log on to UCLearn \(Canvas\).

Student Email

The University only uses your UC email address for all official correspondence. It is important you check this email address regularly as the University will send you important messages about your results and graduation here. If you need to contact a UC Lecturer you will also need to do this using your UC email address.

The format for the University email address for students is studentID@uni.canberra.edu.au.

As at April 2019

To access: login to MyUC.

See: student email for more information.

UC Library

The UC Library provides a range of high quality scholarly information resources and services to the University community. As a UC student, you have access to the UC Library's online resources, via your UC login and password.

See: <http://canberra.libguides.com/offcampus>

Study Skills and Support

As a UC student you also have access to UC's Study Skills program, including free online help for assignment writing, referencing, finding information, mathematics and statistics, and using Canvas.

You have access to 30 free Studiosity (online tutoring) sessions per semester which provides you with personalised, online study help. An Academic Integrity module is also available to help develop your knowledge and understanding of academic integrity.

You can access more of UC's Study Help information via UCLearn (Canvas) at www.canberra.edu.au/studyhelp.

Need help? Where can I find more information?

You have access to the full range of services provided by your home campus and if you need to ask a question about your studies, your home institution can help.

See: <http://www.canberra.edu.au/current-students/other-countries/student-queries>

The UC Student Centre can also assist you with general university administrative needs including:

- MyUC Student Portal
- Graduation and Transcripts

Email: student.centre@canberra.edu.au