

STUDENT SUPPORT

Online study help

As a UC student, you have access to 12 free Studiosity (online tutoring) sessions per semester. Studiosity provides you with personalised, online study help. You can access Studiosity in the Course Menu of every UCLearn (Canvas) site.

TAFE Queensland Library

Not only will you be able to receive face to face advice and help in the Library on TAFE Queensland campus (in C Block), you will also be able to access online UC Library resources – like journal articles to use when researching assignments.

Chat with a Librarian – A librarian can help with understanding how to make a reference list and finding the best of information for your assignments. UC Chat is usually open from 11.30am–5.30pm on weekdays.

Counselling and disability services

Everyone's journey is different and sometimes you need some extra support. We are here to help make your experience just that little bit easier. One-on-one appointments are available for:

- career and personal counselling
- discussion of permanent or temporary disability, mental illness or health conditions
- discussion about Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander career pathways, employment opportunities, accommodation, Centrelink and welfare

Avoiding plagiarism

An Academic Integrity Module (AIM) is available for students to enrol in via UCLearn (Canvas) at canberra.edu.au/aim

The AIM course will help develop your knowledge and understanding of academic integrity, in particular how to avoid plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional.
