In developing this policy the University had regard to the provisions of section 40B(1)(b) of the Human Rights Act 2004 (ACT).

1. PURPOSE:

- 1.1. This Policy sets out the principles governing Student academic progression at the University of Canberra (University).
- 1.2. The purpose of this Policy is to ensure that:
 - 1.2.1. the academic progress of a Student is proactively monitored within a Unit and across a Course;
 - 1.2.2. a Student who is at risk of not completing Unit and Course requirements is identified at the earliest opportunity;
 - 1.2.3. there are academic practices and processes to support and improve Student academic progress;
 - 1.2.4. academic progress practices and processes are applied consistently across student cohorts, are reviewed for Effectiveness and align with the University's obligations under the Higher Education Support Act 2003 and the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000.

2. SCOPE:

- 2.1. This Policy applies to:
 - 2.1.1. a Student admitted to and enrolled in a Coursework Course, or a Higher Degree by Research (HDR) Course of the University;
 - 2.1.2. Coursework Units (Units) detailed in the Register of Courses;
 - 2.1.3. a Staff member of the University, and;
 - 2.1.4. an Affiliate of the University.
- 2.2. This Policy does not apply to:
 - 2.2.1. The academic progress monitoring and review of a Student enrolled in a Unit that includes a Major Research Component.

2.2.2. The academic progress monitoring and review of the non-Coursework Units of a HDR Course.

2.3. The requirements for monitoring and review of the academic progress of a HDR candidate are set out in the HDR by Research Supervision Policy and the HDR by Research Supervision Procedure.

3. PRINCIPLE:

3.1. Course and Unit requirements are made available in the University's Register of Courses (Digital Handbook).

3.2. A Course must be completed within a timeframe that ensures a Students' skills and knowledge, and application of them are relevant on conferral of the Award.

3.3. The University must make available a range of support services to help a Student complete the requirements of the Course they were admitted to, and are currently enrolled in.

3.4. The academic progress of a Student must be actively monitored, and the relevant University staff member must implement early intervention processes if a Student is identified as being at risk of not completing Unit and Course requirements.

3.5. A Student must be given:

3.5.1. information about their academic progress during a Teaching Period;

3.5.2. information about their Academic Standing within ten working days of any Unit result being finalised;

3.5.3. the opportunity to discuss their academic progress with a staff member or Affiliate, and;

3.5.4. timely referral to support services.

3.6. A Student who wishes to seek a review of a decision related to Academic Probation or Academic Suspension made under this policy or its associated procedure, should refer to the University of Canberra \(Academic Progress\) Rules 2022 and the Student Grievance Resolution Policy.

3.7. Records of academic progress will be maintained in accordance with the DITM and Records Management Policy Manual.
