HIGHER RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES AT ICC

Innovation Central Canberra
A collaboration led by cisco

Innovation Central Canberra (ICC) is a partnership between the University of Canberra and Cisco that helps industry and government accelerate innovation, delivering practical digital solutions to real business challenges. From digital transformation and AI governance to policy design and emerging technology adoption, students and academics contribute to research that informs real-world decisions and delivers public impact.

RESEARCH & DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Through ICC, HDR students may contribute to research across:

Tech in Health

- Digital Transformation
- Human-Centred Service
- Information Systems and Interoperability
- Services Innovation and Policy

Policy & Governance

- Technology Policy
- Regulatory Innovation
- Evidence-Based Policy Advice
- Public Sector Reform

AI & Emerging Technology

- AI Governance and Ethics
- Responsible Technology Adoption
- Trust and Transparency
- Future Technology preparedness

National Resilience

- Policy and Uplift
- Cyber Governance
- Risk and Resilience Frameworks
- Cross-government Collaboration

INDUSTRY & GOVERNMENT CONNECTIONS

Through ICC, HDR students may engage with:

- Federal and state government agencies
- Technology and innovation partners
- Industry peak bodies
- Research organisations
- Public sector leaders and decision-makers