

The Trojan War inspired this Artwork, it took a year to complete this artwork as it is quite large. I have always loved learning about mythology and that love motivated me to create this artwork as I have been wanting to do an artwork like this for years. I completed this artwork during a lesson at Lavander Art Studios, I found these lessons very useful for this artwork as the teachers gave me lots of advice to improve this artwork.

